Dear FPC Members:

It is fair to say that the “ship” of First Presbyterian Church, San Antonio has been in choppy waters lately. None of us would have chosen to enter this stormy period of uncertainty as regards the suit about our property’s ownership and our relationship with our denomination. However, we know Him who calms the storms and who holds the future in His hand, as each of us is trying to serve Him faithfully.

At the suggestion of your Church Relations Committee, and with the full concurrence of your Session we are asking that all members enter a season of prayer to specifically pray for the future of First Presbyterian Church, San Antonio. Let us all pray for God’s will as regards our future, and for His guidance as we each endeavor to worship and serve Him in “spirit and in truth.” Let us pray that He will continue to be honored at Fourth and Alamo, and that future generations at FPC will continue to “Make Jesus Visible” to San Antonio, Texas, and the whole world.

In addition to the season of prayer, there will be an opportunity to gather for a time of corporate prayer in the sanctuary on Tuesday, October 20, at 5:30 – 6:30 PM. When God’s people pray, God’s hand moves.

Earnestly in Christ,
