VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL RECAP

WELCOME DEREK GORDON

REV. DR. BOB FULLER

With summer coming to a close and school just around the corner, it is my pleasure to announce that First Presbyterian Church has a new Director of Youth Ministries: Mr. Derek Gordon.

Derek is a native of Fort Worth and a graduate of Dallas Baptist University (B.A.S. in Christian Ministry). He has most recently served as Student Minister of First Baptist Church in George West, Texas.

As the selection committee interviewed candidates, we were certain that our Lord would lead us to the right person. In Derek we believe that God has prepared a young man of energy, action, thoughtfulness and a gentle spirit. In his own words:

"I am excited to be able to plug into a ministry with a rich history and desire to move forward and see where God is leading."

Derek and his wife Ashley (a San Antonio native) have moved to town with their son Holt. (Please see a picture of Derek and his family on page 13). I want to thank Mike Wood, Nancy Scheifele, Becka Byrd, John Culp, Becky Prichard, Mitchell Moore, and Janet Slayden for their hard work through this long process.

At an important moment like this, it is important for us to remember why our ministry to children, teenagers, college students and young adults is so important.

In Acts 20, we read that the Apostle Paul gathered with a group of Christians in Macedonia, in order to have a time of teaching and worship. Luke described the scene:

"...Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight."

A young man named Eutychus was sitting in an open window in the back of the room. As Paul went on and on, Eutychus fell sound asleep and toppled out the third-story window.

In all honesty, I have preached long sermons, and I have preached boring sermons, and I have even had plenty of people fall asleep during my sermons. I have never, however, had anyone fall to their death while I was preaching. The good news is that the story doesn't end there. Luke says that

"<sup>10</sup> Paul went down and bent over him, and taking him in his arms, said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him."

What could have been a tragic story became a funny anecdote. All the adults in the room were having a great time, and the meeting went long. But, while no one was paying attention, a young person fell out of the back window. Paul kept preaching and the church kept on churching. But everybody forgot about this young man, and He fell (nearly) to his death.

What happens if the preacher keeps on preaching and the church keeps on churching without actively engaging and teaching our children and young people? If no one is paying attention to them they will fall asleep and fall away.

We must never take our ministry to young people for granted.

The story says that Eutychus survived because Paul himself rushed to the boy and hugged him hard. He got down on the floor, face to face, body to body. He got down on his level, got personally involved, and through Him God performed a miracle.

The Apostle Paul understood that real ministry requires contact. If we want our young people to love Jesus Christ, love one another and love the city as flourishing disciples of Jesus Christ, we have to be involved in their lives. As Derek says:

"Relational ministry is a top priority for me, because I believe that in order to reach people and bring the Word of God to them you must first develop a relationship with them through investing your time and love in them."

Relationships are critical in Youth Ministry, but Derek, Emily Yergler and their volunteer leaders cannot carry the burden alone. We must all be involved in their lives—to keep them from falling and even to love them back to life when they do fall. I hope you will support Derek and our youth ministry with enthusiasm and prayer. Please get to know Derek, Ashley and Holt, and help them to become part of the FPC family.

Grace and Peace,
Bob Fuller

“GAME ON”

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL RECAP

“Game On!” was the theme for this year’s Vacation Bible School. It was a fantastic, fun-filled week of making crafts, hearing God’s word, working on mission projects, playing games, eating yummy snacks, and lots of singing and dancing. Some of our adult volunteers even learned how to “floss.” We had over 115 children and 80 adult and youth volunteers filling the halls of FPC with the joyful sound of laughter. They enjoyed large group time skits led by Bob the Ref and Coach Davis, who showed us how we could incorporate God’s word anywhere, even on the football field. We also had a soccer player, tennis player, baseball player, and cheerleader leading us in music and dance time!

Throughout the week, the kids learned stories that taught them that Jesus Cares About Us, Jesus Gives Us Hope, Jesus Helps Us Believe, Jesus Loves Us, and Jesus Gives Us Joy. The kids brought money each day to donate to STAFO (South Texas Alliance for Orphans). They received a balloon for each dollar they brought and we watched excitedly as the cluster of balloons grew and grew each day. By Friday, the kids had donated over $450.00 to benefit STAFO!

The best part of VBS is watching the kids discover who God is and how to trust God with and in their own lives. It was so much fun to see and hear FPC filled with kids so excited to learn about God and how much God cares for us.

Many thanks to our Children’s Ministry Team, adult volunteers, and youth volunteers who helped make this year’s VBS so successful. Whether they helped with decorating, teaching the lessons, making crafts, leading games, serving yummy snacks, helping in missions, or doing the behind the scenes work, we could not do this so well without their support! THANK YOU from the FPC Children’s Ministry Department.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH

BY HOLLY YOUNGQUIST, PRESIDENT

I am honored and excited to serve as the 2018-2019 President of Women of the Church (WOC); as our brochure states, “If you are a woman and a member of this church, you are a member of Women of the Church.” I want to welcome and encourage ALL women of First Presbyterian Church to join us and experience the fellowship, study and service we enjoy.

As we transition into the new year, I would like to recognize the outstanding leadership of Pat Brodeen, outgoing WOC President, and all of the 2017-2018 officers, chairmen and Bible Moderators. Because of the generosity of the Women of the Church and the contributions made at the May Coffee, we were able to end the fiscal year with a surplus of funds which we gifted to The FPC Children’s Center, Young Life, Christian Dental Clinic, Sus Hijas, House of Neighborly Service (HNS), Presbyterian Children’s Home (PCHAS) and Food for the Hungry.

Thanks to the many women who served at and supported Vacation Bible School in June. Some taught, some provided snacks and others came and showed love and support for teachers, helpers and, of course, the children. It truly takes a village to produce such an outstanding program. Special thanks to Bunkie Shed, Chair of Circle 20, who organized all of the yummy snacks for the visitors, teachers and teen helpers.

In July, WOC members contributed school supplies for the children and young mothers in transition at the Presbyterian Children’s Home and to our ministry partners in the Faith Based Institute (FBI).

The moderators are busy preparing for another year of study. This year we will be journeying through a book entitled “Just Open the Door, A Study of Biblical Hospitality.” We appreciate the many hours Susan DeKoch, Moderator Chair, has spent praying and preparing to provide these lessons for each circle member as well as to lead each moderator so that she is ready to share with her circle. For more information about circles, please contact the Vice President for Circles, Barbara Dorsey at bgd101@msn.com.

As we look forward to the coming year and all that God has planned for each of us, please “Save the Date” for the Fall Ladies’ Night Out at the home of Holly Youngquist, 109 Cobblestone Court on Tuesday, October 16 from 6:30 – 8:30. All FPC women are encouraged to attend...and bring a friend.

Living to Make Jesus Visible requires us to live differently. So often, we underestimate the life-changing impact that opening the doors of our hearts and homes to others has on our culture. My hope is that we can make a deliberate decision to be intentional in getting to know the people around us—within our church, our community, our neighborhoods, our schools and our places of work. I truly believe that lives will be changed by something as simple as an invitation. I’m inviting YOU to join us on this journey as we dig into scripture to find out what true Biblical Hospitality looks like.

Live Big, Love Deeply and Serve Humbly,

Holly S. Youngquist

FPC DEACONS

According to the ECO Polity document, “Deacons lead ministries that nurture fellowship and caregiving within and beyond the congregation. Deacons may also be asked to preach and teach. The congregation shall determine the manner in which they are selected for service. The session shall oversee and direct the ministry of the deacons.”

Deacons nurture fellowship and caregiving in several ways:

- Hospital and Rehabilitation Facility Visitation.
Deacons visit members in medical facilities, when requested by the members or members’ families through the Care and Concern Line.
- Home Visitation.
Deacons visit members at home, when requested by members, to help all members to feel a part of our congregation.
- Grief Ministry.
Deacons walk alongside members who have experienced a death of a close loved one by following up with them with contacts and visits.
- After Worship Prayer.
Deacons are available to pray with members after each worship service.
- Seasonal Flower Delivery.
Deacons deliver seasonal flowers (Poinsettias and Easter Lilies) to certain members, including those who have experienced a recent loss, those being visited at home, and members over 90 years old.
- Prayer.
Deacons pray for members, as requested in the Care and Concern Line and as other concerns are shared with them.

If you or someone you know could benefit from our deacon ministry, please contact Rev. Scott Simpson, Associate Pastor for Congregational Care, at scotts@fpcsat.org or 210-226-0215, ext. 212, or Lisa Snow, at lisas@fpcsat.org.

IN SEARCH OF JOHN MCCULLOUGH

BY BILL COGBURN

Several months ago, I wrote an article for the First Pres newsletter chronicling John McCullough’s life after he left First Pres. After leaving San Antonio in 1849, he returned to Galveston where he taught in a seminary which he had founded before coming to San Antonio. A yellow fever epidemic forced the seminary to close in 1856. He then moved with his second wife and family to Dresden, Ohio, where he spent the next several years as stated supply for three churches near Zanesville.

In 1859, he moved back to Texas, becoming a rancher on the Double Horn Creek near Marble Falls, Texas. While he called himself a rancher, he continued to preach and teach during his years on the ranch.

In 1869, he was called to be the minister of the Prairie Lea Presbyterian Church in Caldwell County. Prairie Lea is a small town a few miles northwest of Luling, Texas. McCullough was minister of that church for less than a year before he died of a stroke at age 74. On a recent outing, Roz and I decided to visit the gravesite of John McCullough. The town cemetery at Prairie Lea has a historic marker near the front entrance, memorializing John McCullough with a brief history of his early years in Texas and how he established the first protestant church in our city.

The cemetery was small so we proceeded to search for his headstone but with no success. It just wasn’t there! An internet search revealed a website which stated that “John McCullough’s grave is not marked.” I am very curious to know if anyone at First Pres has information regarding the location of John McCullough’s grave. If so, I would be happy and honored, pending approval of family members, to lead an effort to erect a headstone at his gravesite. Any information will be appreciated.

Please reach me at bcogburn@satx.rr.com or 210-228-9711.

FIRST CUP READINGS AUGUST, 2018

Dear Family in Christ,

First Cup is designed to assist you in the habit of daily Bible reading and prayer. The name is to remind you that as you reach for your first cup of morning coffee or tea, reach also for your Bible and prayer list. The prayers at the beginning of each week are taken from hymns, sometimes found in obscure hymnals in our libraries. They are intended to be read as your beginning prayer, to focus your mind on the daily readings that follow. May this spiritual discipline strengthen you as you face each day.

Blessings and love in Christ, Sandy Sturch and Claire Averyt

But the Shepherd made answer: "This of mine has wandered away from Me. And although the road be rough and steep, I go to the desert to find My sheep." And all through the mountains, thunder-riven, and up from the rocky steep, there arose a glad cry up to the gate of heaven, "Rejoice! I have found My sheep!" In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. (Romans 8:26).
