Contact: Catherine Miller, 210-394-2045 or grcjmill@sbcbglobal.net

Description: Seat yourself on a mountainside to learn at the feet of Jesus! In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus utters some of the most familiar passages in all of Scripture. Many of us have encountered the Sermon on the Mount in fragments - a study on blessedness, a reflection on the Lord's Prayer, a meditation on lilies of the field. In this study, led by author Jen Wilkin, we will navigate these chapters as they were originally heard: as one cohesive, well-ordered message, intended to challenge the disciples - and us - to think differently about what it means to be a citizen of the kingdom of Heaven. Whether this is your first look at Jesus' longest recorded message or it is one of your treasured favorites, come join women of all ages as we respond to His teaching. Feel free to bring a friend with you! Childcare is available on request.

King David played a pivotal role both in the history of Israel and in God’s redemptive plan for the world. In a story of triumph and tragedy worthy of Hollywood’s best writers, this youngest, most unlikely son would ascend to greatness, only to fall and rise again and again. How did this man become king, how did his human weaknesses shape his relationship with God, and why did God call him “a man after my own heart?”
