Director of Children's Choir Activities

Director of The Jubilate Choir: 3rd - 5th

kathyj@fpcsat.org

What the kids call me: Miss Jamison

Personal: I spent a relaxing summer in San Antonio. I enjoyed spending time with friends, reading, and watching old movies.

I grew up: Missouri, Iowa, and New Jersey. I also lived in California and Wisconsin before becoming a Texan.

Attended college: I have a B.S. in Music Education from the University of Missouri, a Master of Music with Kodaly Emphasis from Holy Names College in Oakland, California, and a MBA from the University of Texas at San Antonio.

When I'm not directing choir: I teach kindergarten through fifth grade vocal music at St. Thomas Episcopal School and I have a piano and voice studio with 20 students.

Hobbies and Interests: I enjoy reading, gardening, movies, antique stores, and traveling. I am also a sports fan. Love the Spurs and Mizzou Tigers.

I am excited about being a children's choir director because: My first childhood music experiences were in church with wonderful musicians, church leaders, and pastor who encouraged and guided all the children. I hope to minister to the children of First Presbyterian in the same way.

Megan Martin

Director of The Angel Choir: 3-year-olds

megan.martin08@gmail.com

What the kids call me: Mrs. Martin

Personal: I live at home with my husband, two daughters, Hannah and Katy, and our dogs Lucy and Brutus.

I grew up: in central Illinois until I was 10, when I moved to San Antonio, which has been my home ever since!

Attended College: I attended the University of North Texas for two years, where I studied flute performance, before moving back home to get my degree in music education from The University of Texas at San Antonio. Go Roadrunners!

When I'm not directing Choir: I am usually at home spending time with my family. I also enjoy reading and watching TV. When I'm not at home, you can usually find me with my parents, or at the gym.

Hobbies and Interests: Along with teaching elementary music, and directing the choir, I am a member of the San Antonio Wind Symphony where I play flute. I also enjoy reading, cooking, swimming, and of course spending time playing with my kids.

I am excited about being a children's choir director because I love making music with children, and watching them grow up and turn into wonderful young men and women who care about music.
