THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices and do not take flash photos during the service. As the prelude begins, we invite you into a period of quiet reflection as we prepare for worship.

† Please stand at these times if you are able to do so.

(PLEASE ENTER THE SANCTUARY IN SILENCE AND MEDITATION)

PRELUDE — MEDITATION ON “WERE YOU THERE”
JAE HA, ARR.

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

WERE YOU THERE – SPIRITUAL
TOM DOOLING, SOLOIST

WELCOME AND CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Today, we gather in remembrance.

People: We gather as people who recognize their need for a Savior.

Leader: We worship the king who humbled himself in obedience to death.

People: We cry out to Jesus, who loved us even in our sin.

Leader: We honor the one who took our place.

All: We raise our eyes to the God who allowed his son to die, so that we could always live.

OPENING PRAYER

† CONGREGATIONAL WORSHIP —
HYMN #255 “BENEATH THE CROSS OF JESUS”

LESSON ONE: JESUS IS MOCKED
MARK 15:16-20

¹⁶ And the soldiers led him away inside the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters), and they called together the whole battalion. ¹⁷ And they clothed him in a purple cloak, and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on him. ¹⁸ And they began to salute him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ¹⁹ And they were striking his head with a reed and spitting on him and kneeling down in homage to him. ²⁰ And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. And they led him out to crucify him.

Leader: Almighty God, we give thanks and praise and worship, with your Church in every place and throughout the ages, for the grace that has come to us once for all in our Lord Jesus Christ. It is with shame and sorrow, as we think of Him, that we confess our failures to be His true disciples; we have not followed Him in His concern for the poor, the despised and the lost ones; we shrink from being wholly committed to His way of meekness; we long for the prizes that this world can give, and are too easily turned aside from His way of faith and hope and love.

All: Lord have mercy on us. Christ have mercy on us, Lord have mercy on us. In Your forgiving love, most merciful Father, accept our sorrow for our sins, and strengthen us in the resolve to be His disciples indeed, by His Spirit in us, all the days of our life. For His love's sake. AMEN.

SILENT PRAYER

LESSON TWO: THE CRUCIFIXION

LUKE 23:32-43

(SELECTED VERSES, READ RESPONSIVELY)

Leader: Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with Him.

People: And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on His right and one on His left.

Leader: And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide His garments.

People: And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself, if He is the Christ of God, His Chosen One!"

Leader: The soldiers also mocked Him, coming up and offering Him sour wine and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over Him, "This is the King of the Jews."

People: One of the criminals who were hanged railed at Him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

Leader: But the other rebuked Him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? This man has done nothing wrong."

People: And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." And He said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

All Pray: Almighty God, you have given us a vision, in the word made flesh, of the freedom and fulfillment You have purposed for our human race. May that vision never fade from our minds and wills. May Your Spirit be strong to sustain its power against the darkness and evil in our human hearts, and in the world around us. Lord Jesus Christ, despised and rejected, Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief; be present with Your brothers and sisters who bear the pain of the world. Strengthen them in spirit. Send them present help and uplift them with the hope of Your Kingdom. Lord hear their prayer. AMEN.

SILENT PRAYER

LESSON THREE: THE DEATH OF JESUS

LUKE 23:44-49
(READ RESPONSIVELY)

Leader: It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

People: Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this He breathed His last.

Leader: Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, saying, "Certainly this man was innocent!"

People: And all the crowds that had assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts. And all His acquaintances and the women who had followed Him from Galilee stood at a distance watching these things.

All Pray: As the Lord Jesus said, "It is finished", so we accept in faith, and in great thankfulness and gladness, His holy life and sacrificial death for us and for our world. As the Lord Jesus committed Himself in dying into the Father's hand, so let us commit ourselves, with all that concerns us, to His infinite power and goodness. Father, into Your hands we commit ourselves and all dear to us, and the world for which we pray. AMEN.

LESSON FOUR: THE BURIAL OF JESUS

⁵⁰ Now there was a man named Joseph, from the Jewish town of Arimathea. He was a member of the council, a good and righteous man, ⁵¹ who had not consented to their decision and action; and he was looking for the kingdom of God. ⁵² This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁵³ Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud and laid him in a tomb cut in stone, where no one had ever yet been laid. ⁵⁴ It was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was beginning. ⁵⁵ The women who had come with him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid. ⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

All Pray: Almighty Father, we are filled with wonder, and awe and reverent worship, as we wait before the Cross that atones for our sins, and proclaims Your measureless love for weak and erring men and women. Thanks be to God for His gift beyond words, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Holy Spirit of God, come to us and move our hard hearts, that we may sorrow with Christ for our torn humanity, and for all homeless souls, and become His body in the world today. We are persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, in Christ Jesus our Lord. AMEN.

MEDITATION — NOT WITHOUT BLOOD

HEBREWS 9:18-28
REV. DR. BOB FULLER

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH (FROM THE DECLARATION OF FAITH)

Leader: We believe that in the death of Jesus on the cross God achieved and demonstrated once for all the costly forgiveness of our sins. Jesus Christ is the Reconciler between God and the world. He acted on behalf of sinners as one of us, fulfilling the obedience God demands of us, accepting God's condemnation of our sinfulness.

People: In His lonely agony on the cross Jesus felt forsaken by God and thus experienced hell itself for us. Yet the Son was never more in accord with the Father's will. He was acting on behalf of God, manifesting the Father's love that takes on itself the loneliness, pain, and death that result from our waywardness. In Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself, not holding our sins against us. Each of us beholds on the cross the Savior who died in our place, so that we may no longer live for ourselves, but for Him. In Him is our only hope of salvation.

THE CONGREGATION IS DISMISSED

When you are ready, please leave the sanctuary silently and solemnly, yet filled with hope in anticipation of the resurrection to come.
